Director, GDIP Staff

STAT

I wanted you to know the session with you last Monday at the GDIP Conference was quite an education for me. In particular, I got first-hand experience with the nature and magnitude of one of the key difficulties in the GDIP; namely, the regular turnover in personnel.

My offer to you at the end of our session, to assist you in anyway that I can in the coming weeks and months, including trips, remains valid. Naturally, I would like as much lead time as possible but I really will do anything within reason to help you.
